Kathy Fiscus Is Found Dead In Well Tomb After 52 Hours

SAN MARINO, Calif., April 11.—(AP)—The world is a little sadder today. Little Kathy Fiscus was brought up dead from her well tomb after 52 hours.

All mothers and fathers shared in some measure the grief that overcame David and Alice Fiscus when the body of their tow-headed three-year old was found lying in water, wedged about 100 feet down in the 14-inch pipe.

The announcement of death, by drowning, at 8:58 (PST) last night brought to a tragic end the tireless digging of weary rescuers and the anxious waiting of sympathizers everywhere.

Dr. Harry L. Deutsch of the county coroner's office performed an autopsy today. He said he could not immediately confirm the family physician's diagnosis of drowning, but could say definitely—thus scuttling widely-heard rumors—that she was not strangled by the rope thrown to her in the early minutes of the grim struggle to save her.

He said there were no broken bones and that she had been dead about 48 hours when she was removed, confirming estimates that she lived only a few hours. Pending laboratory tests, however, he would not amplify further. The coroner's office said it had not yet decided whether to call an inquest to see if responsibility can be fixed for the open well into which the girl plunged.

Since many little Kathy, running at play, stumbled into the well, covered well opening last Friday afternoon, accounts of the attempt to reach her had stirred the na-

County Officials Told Home Agents Require More Pay

The Commissioners' Court was warned Monday that Navarro county will be without home demonstration agents unless higher salaries are provided.

Mrs. Rosella R. Cook, district demonstration agent, told the court at its meeting Monday morning that this county pays agents less than other counties having virtually the same valuation. As for getting someone to replace former demonstration agent Eva Sue Merritt, Mrs. Cook said "It just can't be done" because of the low pay.

Navarro county pays the agent and the assistant agent $1,388 and $693 respectively annually. She cited other comparative counties who pay their agents over $1700 and $1200.

Backing up the demonstration official was a small delegation of club women who declared "We're lost without an agent."

Miss Merritt has been gone several months and the office is now in charge of Assistant Agent Fern Bruce.

Balloting Tuesday To Decide Bonds For New Hospital

Navarro county voters Tuesday determine whether or not a 100-bed memorial hospital becomes a reality.

In a double election, the electorate will determine whether or not bonds of $500,000 will be issued to construct, equip, and establish a hospital of the first class, and also whether or not a maintenance tax be levied to insure the proper operation of the proposed $1,200,000 structure.

"There is nothing we can say but merely thank all the people who have been helpful," said the mother and father. Fiscus is San Marino branch manager for the company which built the well. Only last week he had urged enactment of a state law to cap up all old wells.

Rescue workers knew they were in for trouble when a water table was struck at about the 40th hour of operations. However, hopes were kept up in the belief that the child was trapped above the water level. Besides, they reasoned, the well had been abandoned as dry.

Taft-Hartley Act Battle Maneuvers Are Being Made

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(AP)—Congressional friends and foes of the Taft-Hartley act maneuvered today toward real action in the battle over repeal of the law.

CIO unions were under orders to drum up "additional and badly needed support among congressmen for the administration's labor bill."

Two Republican senators meanwhile planned extensive alterations for the measure when it hits the senate floor.

Capitol Hill's big labor debate of 1949 is scheduled to begin on April 26 in the house. Due to jam of business, the senate probably will not join in the tussle until several weeks later.

The house rules committee is due to decide today or tomorrow on clearing the administration bill for floor action.

The week-end produced two important developments: 1. Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Ives (R-NY) tentatively agreed on a bundle of amendments they plan to offer to the administration bill.

2. CIO President Philip Murray called for faster action on repeal of the law almost unanimously opposed by labor unions, and branded as a "foul concoction" a proposed substitute for the administration's repealer.

Mass Funeral To Be Held For Six Killed In Church

MARION, S. D., April 11.—(AP)—This small South Dakota town today planned a mass funeral for the six Holy Week worshippers killed Sunday as a blast demolished St. Mary's Catholic church.

William O. Brady of Sioux Falls, Diocesan head, tentatively set Wednesday for the mass rites for the elderly victims who died as they knelt in prayer. Forty-seven other persons were injured, several critically.

The brick church was shattered by a basement explosion a few moments before the 9 a. m. Palm Sunday mass was to begin. Only the entrance bell tower remained standing. A small fire that followed was quickly put out.

Church officials attributed the blast to escaping bottled furnace fuel gas. Phil Wachendorf, a parishioner, said "everything blew up" when he threw a fusee switch.

The church had a seating capacity of 250 but only about 75 worshippers were in their pews. Many others stood in small groups outside while waiting for the mass to begin. They escaped injury.

Despite a broken rib and other injuries, Father Joseph Zimmerman, 73, the pastor, helped direct rescue work.

James Forrestal, Former Chief Of Defense, Is Ill

WASHINGTON, April 10.—(AP)—Former Secretary of Defense James Forrestal was reported in "satisfactory condition" today at the naval medical center at Bethesda, Md.

Hospital authorities said that Forrestal, who became a patient there a week ago, was resting comfortably. The hospital said he was undergoing a routine check-up.

Forrestal's associates said over the weekend that he is suffering from nervous exhaustion.

Forrestal, 57, retired from the post defense post March 28. He was succeeded by Louis Johnson.

AGREE TO END MILITARY CONTROL OF WESTERN GERMANY

The shaded areas locate French, British and United States occupation zones in western Germany which will be freed of military control as soon as a proposed "German Federal Republic" is set up, according to an agreement announced by those three powers in Washington. The text of an occupation statute is being dispatched to the German Parliamentary Council at Bonn (A) where a constitution for a western Germany government is being drafted. The three powers confirmed and approved plan dismantling arrangements, policies governing prohibited and restricted industries and the establishment of an international authority for the Ruhr (B), all previously negotiated in London. Legislature Sends Natural Gas Tax Bill To Committee By Single Vote

AUSTIN, April 11.—(AP)—The house by one vote today sent the natural gas tax-rural road bill back to committee.

Backers of the bill, crying the action meant the measure was a dead duck for this session, lost 60-68. Those who wanted to send the bill back to committee said it just needed more votes.

This action came after an exchange of bitter words between proponents and opponents in one of the session's sharpest debates. The house passed the bill 60-68. The measure would raise the tax on natural gas from 1 cent to 1.5 cents per cubic foot.

The measure would also provide for the construction of rural roads. The bill would also provide for the construction of rural roads. The bill would also provide for the construction of rural roads.

Suspected Auto Thief Is Seized By Local Officer

Patrolman Frank V. Chapman, Jr., of the police department nabbed an Alabama car thief and ex-convict Sunday in a chase that ended on North Highway 75.

A 1949 Ford automobile, stolen in Montgomery, Ala. last week, was recovered and the suspect, Willie Edward Thomas, a negro, was in the city jail.

Thomas admitted to officers that he stole the car in Montgomery, and had served time prior to that on car theft charges. He was being held pending advice from Alabama officials.

Chapman spotted the negro as he was getting gasoline at a local filling station. The negro saw the police uniform, jumped in his car and sped out of the station. The policeman brought him to a stop past the Texas Miller Products, Inc. hat factory on North Highway 75.

The negro told officers he was going to get the gasoline and speed off as he had no money. He said he traded a tire and wheel off the car for gasoline in Mississippi.

The department recovered another stolen car Monday morning. It, too, was a 1949 maroon Ford. It was stolen in Tyler on April 6, and abandoned on South Thirtieth St. here over the weekend.

Red Cross Quota Oversubscribed

The Navarro County Red Cross drive, which started the last week in February, closed at the end of last week with the quota realized and surplus in addition.

It was announced Monday that the total obtained was $13,459.14. The amount sought was 13,300.

Charles Roy Bristow New President Of Hi-Y Conference; Write-In Winner

Charles Roy Bristow of Corsicana was announced as the new president of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y conference of the northeast Texas district, Sunday morning, the last day of the three-day meet here.

Bristow, whose name was not on the original ballot, won by a 21 margin on a write-in campaign Saturday afternoon over Tom Davis of Gladewater and Greg Criswell of Kilgore.

Ann Kida of Tyler was elected first vice president, winning over Jo Ann Bigony of Corsicana.

John Welch of Tyler won the post of second vice president over Miles Wilson of Denison. The secretary and treasurer post went to Adah Clark of Gladewater, who won over David Thomas of Gladewater.

Federal Spending Is Under Fire In Both Chambers

Defense Setup Is Declared Wasteful And Inefficient

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(AP)—A full-fledged economy drive appeared to be developing in congress today, with federal spending under heavy fire in both the senate and house.

Republicans and Democrats alike joined in attacks on the Truman administration's record peacetime budget requests.

Here are the highlights: 1. In the senate, the armed services committee demanded drastic military budget revisions on the ground that the defense setup is "permeated with waste and inefficiency."

The demand followed testimony by former President Herbert Hoover that it is "almost impossible" to make heads or tails of the army, navy and air force budgets.

Hoover disclosed air force plans to build 100 bombers, $58,860 in Alaska and army requests for money to modernize 102 tanks it doesn't possess.

Hoover said the armed services are apparently "padding" their requests to congress for money and termed it "a fairly general practice."

2. Economy-minded Democrats and Republicans drove for sharp cuts on spending for the next 15 months of the European Recovery program as the foreign-aid bill neared a vote in the house. A similar measure has already passed the senate.

The administration's new farm program came under fire by Rep. August H. Anderson (R-Minn.) as "fantastic." He estimated it would cost the government between $5,000,000,000 and $10,000,000,000.

A half billion dollar outlay in veterans' administration funds highlighted a $7,676,886,231 multi-agency money bill approved today by the house appropriations committee.

The bill carries funds for the fiscal year beginning July 1 for 28 so-called independent agencies, including $5,000,120,397 for the atomic energy commission.

Every agency in the bill shared in the overall reduction of $74,680,590 from the presidential budget requests for $3,311,568,830, but the veterans' administration took the deepest slash.

Spring Cleanup Campaign Is Now Under Way Here

The annual spring cleanup campaign started in Corsicana Monday with health officials urging residents to get rid of their trash.

Jess Megarity, head of the city's sanitation department, expected heavy loadings as trucks made their regular rounds of debris and garbage collecting.

Miss Lillian, city sanitation and member of the Corsicana-Navarro Health Unit, said it was not planned to add extra trucks and that collections would be on the regular schedule.

She urged residents to clean their yards, houses and outhouses such as barns, chicken yards and pigsties, and place the material where it could be collected by the staff of the sanitation department.

Residents are asked to comply with the law which provides that garbage containers must be covered.

The drive will continue all week.

Men Feared Dead After Reservoir Roof Caves In

SANTA MONICA, Calif., April 11.—(AP)—Police reported today that a new city reservoir under construction caved in today and it is believed that some workmen may have been buried.

It is the Franklin Hill reservoir. Officers said a large concrete roof on the reservoir near Mt. Olive section of the city collapsed at 11:10 a. m.

The reservoir, designed to hold 5,000,000 gallons, is of reinforced concrete.

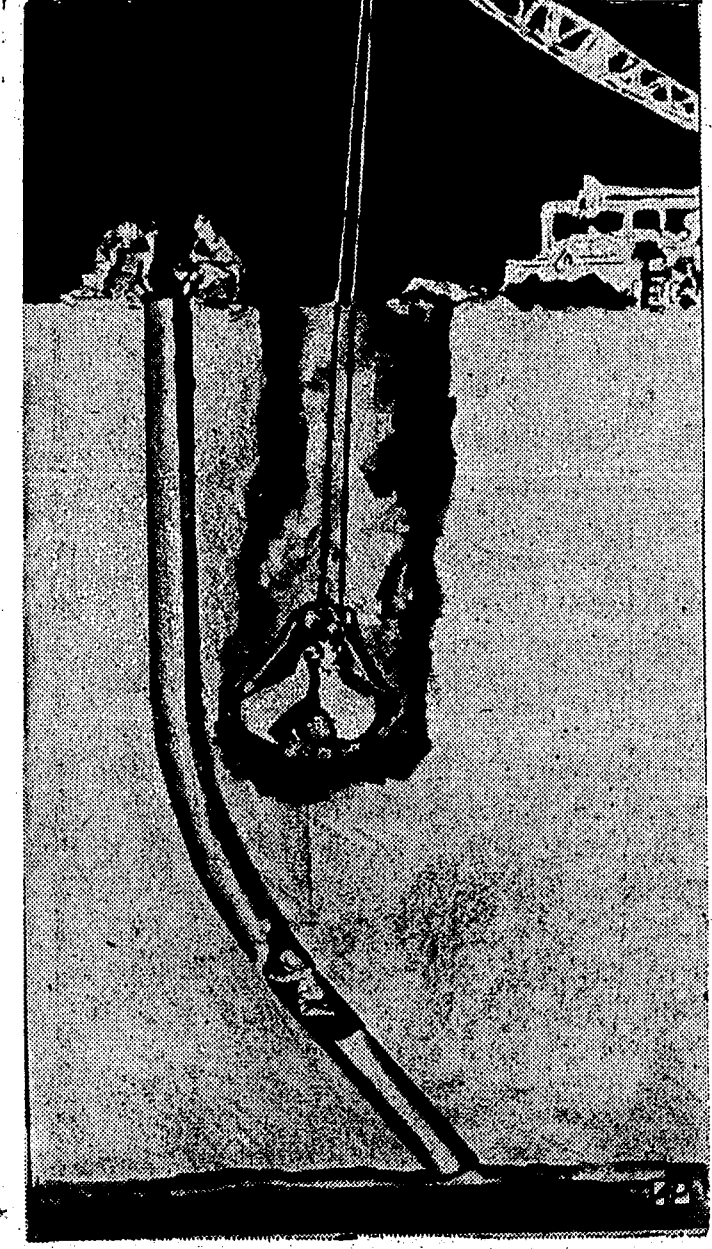

One-quarter of the roof section already had been poured, and today men were working on the second quarter into wooden forms.

The office of City Engineer Maurice King said it was believed that at least 15 men would be working on the job, probably most of them on the roof. The reservoir is 19 feet deep, and was started last November. It is 322 feet long by 142 feet wide.

Burglars In Tokyo Have Busy Sunday

TOKYO, April 11.—(AP)—It was a wonderous day for burglars, too. Thousands of Tokyo residents took a rainy Sunday to visit parks and nearby towns famed for their cherry blossoms.

When they returned, hundreds informed police their homes had been burglarized.

After the end of this session of the legislature collapsed. Gov. Beauford H. Jester refused to go along with the plan. The governor asked for "prompt final action" on the school bills so as not to jeopardize the 1949-50 school program.

An effort to reconsider amendment to the natural gas tax bill that cut the levy from one cent to three-fourths of a cent per 1,000 cubic feet failed when backers of the bill were unable to muster the necessary two-thirds vote. This was a sharp setback for proponents of the bill.

Then succeeded in knocking down a proposed amendment to change the allocation of funds. This amendment would have set aside only one-fourth of the revenue from the bill for rural roads, and three-fourths for the public schools. Backers of the bill said the effect of this amendment would be to kill the bill.

The house finally passed 109 to 24 a bill setting up a branch of the University of Texas Medical College at Temple. The measure appropriating $500,000 for the school goes now to the senate. Its finance committee has been delaying action on such measures.

The house also advanced the bill licensing chiropractors. It moved the measure up on the calendar as special order of business for 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Joint Session

House and senate went into joint session for an address by Gov. Raul Lopez-Sanchez of the Mexican State of Coahuila, immediately after the natural gas-rural feeder road bill was laid out again for debate.

Meanwhile, the men in the boots and big hats were back today pressuring legislators to support a natural gas tax bill for county roads. They swarmed the corridors outside the hall of the house in such numbers that members had to shoulder their way in an hour before the start of the morning session, the gallery was filling.

They were here to back Rep. C. S. McLellan's gas tax bill, on tap for renewed debate in the house.

They represented the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, the Grange, the Association of County Judges and Commissioners and other rural and small town groups.

Restoration Sought

J. Walter Hammond of Tye, President of the Farm Bureau Federation, said there would be between 500 and 600 farmers and small town business men and hand to try to restore the McLellan bill to its original form.

As amended by the house last week, the McLellan bill would impose a tax of three-fourths of one cent per 1,000 cubic feet of natural gas. Hammond said the immediate goal was to restore the original one cent figure.

"We worked two years for a bill that would bring in an absolute minimum needed for feeder roads," Hammond said. "This undercuts the minimum."

The McLellan bill was designed to supplement the original 15 million dollar measure for secondary roads passed earlier this session. It contemplates construction of feeder roads not possible under the first rural road bill.

An amendment approved by the house during consideration of the tax plan last week cut the rate from 1 cent to three-fourths of a cent. That lopped off more than 5 million dollars from the 22 to 23 million dollars the author had estimated the tax would raise each year.

Moving into the final month of the constitutionally suggested 120-day session, the legislature is sure to kill many pending bills through the process of delaying them until time runs out.

Nevertheless, committee hearings on bills are continuing.

A bill to keep the name of the Communist party off the Texas ballot will be given a house committee hearing tomorrow night.

At the same session, at 7:30 p. m., before the house committee on privileges and election, two other proposed election changes will be heard. Rep. Eugene Williams of San Antonio has a measure requiring all political parties to hold primary elections, regardless of their vote in the previous general election.

Rep. Frank McGregor of Waco has a bill setting the first primary on the fourth Saturday in April and the second primary on the fourth Saturday in May.

The anti-Communist bill, by Senator John Bell of Cuero, already has been approved by the senate. A measure creating a State Youth Development Council by Senator R. L. Proffer of Justin, will be heard before the senate state affairs committee tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Other hearings tomorrow include: At 7:30 p. m., before the senate banking committee a bill by Senator Gus Strass of Hallettsville regulates small loan businesses. At 2:30 p. m., before the house insurance committee a bill by Rep. Jim Lindsey of Boston permitting insurance companies to write full coverage for those who want it.

The bill's total includes $7,044,871.803 in cash and $472,314,928 in contract authorizations for which future appropriations may be required. The President had asked for $7,775,568,830 in cash and $538,000,000 in contract authority.

Not only did the committee upset the President's budget on the money items, but it refused to follow his budget bureau's recommendation for cancellation of $237,000,000 in previously authorized veterans' hospital construction.

It even cut the budget bureau's own budget.

But even with the overall $508,780,000 reduction, the total VA fund would be $14,977,040 more than congress gave the agency this year. However, the committee said, the VA will have about $800,000,000 less to spend next year than it had this year because some of the funds will be used during the remaining months of this fiscal year.

In explanation of the big cuts in VA funds, the committee said there is no way to determine accurately the exact needs of some of the programs.

In refusing to go along with the budget bureau in cancelling $237,000,000 in hospital building authority for which the money has not yet been provided, the committee said the President could decide what part of the construction program should go ahead.

The atomic energy commission's share of the bill is $1,090,780,397, consisting of $702,930,709 in cash and $387,849,628 in contract authority. The President wanted $740,000,000 cash and $427,000,000 in contract authority.

About one-third of the commission's program for next year involves weapons and reactor development which the committee said should not be cut because they deal with "our first line of defense."

Other congressional developments:

Speed—Air Secretary Symington told a house services subcommittee that American air force pilots have now flown hundreds of miles per hour beyond the speed of sound.

A sea level, the speed of sound is 764 M.P.H.

Oleo—A dairy spokesman told the senate finance committee that a house-passed bill junking federal taxes on oleomargarine would bring about "butterlegging" on a scale reminiscent of bootlegging in the prohibition era.

He said the bill lacks any effective safeguard against "the fraudulent but highly lucrative passing off of yellow oleo as butter."

Wages—Wage-hour Administrator William R. McComb estimated that some 2,780,000 workers will get more money if the proposed 75-cent minimum wage level is approved by congress.

Secretary of Labor Tobin told a senate labor subcommittee that the nation's present 40-cent minimum wage scale is "as outdated as a 1938 model tank or airplane in an atomic age."

The drive to cut European-aid funds in the house paralleled similar efforts in the senate, but all attempts to chop the senate's $5,580,000,000 bill failed.

Rep. Preston (D-Ga.) told reporters he is going to try for a reduction of around 10 per cent, or about $500,000,000. Rep. Lawrence

H. Smith (R-Wis.) already had announced he would attempt a similar cut, applied a little differently.

There were similar efforts in the senate to cut the $5,880,000,000 authorization but they failed.

Even the house people who want to lower the amount say they favor aid to western Europe for another 15 months. And many of those who are against a bill of any size concede they are going to get licked.

A vote on passage was possible late today, and that was the goal, but many members figured the decision would go over at least until tomorrow.

That group voted to award a trophy for the honor club plan, to be awarded at the conference each year. It also allotted each club four members to attend the YMCA summer camp at Possum Kingdom Lake each year.

The council also discussed and recommended inter-club visitation, the election of club officers in April or May of each year, and the organization of a state Hi-Y basketball tournament each year.

Musical entertainment for the morning was brought by Zelma Hanson, vocalist, accompanied by Bill Clark.

Pat Trimble thanked the delegates on behalf of the Corsicana clubs, and President Bristow recommended that the delegates write letters to S. J. Schreiner of the southwest area council of YMCA's lauding Ned Kemp's work in directing the conference.

Kemp closed the conference, by calling for any recommendations on the part of the delegates. The only two suggestions made were for better instruction regarding election procedure, and for the setting aside of time for campaign speeches on the part of candidates.

The early part of the Saturday afternoon session was devoted to business, the election of officers, and the extemporaneous speaker's contest.

Later that afternoon the whole delegation went to Trinidad by bus, and visited the TPL power plant there. After the tour, they were the guests of the company at a supper at the lake there.

Returning to Corsicana early Saturday night, they were entertained at the YMCA here with a number of recreational features. During the entertainment, the Corsicana Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs presented Bill Bacon, general secretary of the Corsicana Y, with a gold watch in commemoration of his service during the past four years, with the local Y and Hi-Y clubs.

Bacon is leaving the local Y effective April 18, to be located in Dallas in charge of the YMCA summer camp on Possum Kingdom Lake.

job was to "make Germany ready for war in four years."

The sentences probably will not be announced until Thursday, when the three-judge court completes reading its 833-page finding.

There were 21 defendants tried on seven different counts, of which plotting aggressive war was the first. Nine defendants were acquitted of this charge. The other seven were not accused under it.

The 21 defendants all were diplomats or high officials of the Nazi government. The prosecution called them the "core of Nazi conquests" without whom Hitler could not have waged his war.

Weizsacker was the chief defendant. His attorney, Warren E.

MaGee of Washington, D. C., put up an impressive defense. Weizsacker claimed he actually had been anti-Nazi remaining in office only to oppose Hitler's program.

CHILD DEAD

But when the rescue team of Kelly and H. E. (Whitey) Blichensderfer dug through mud and water and cut into the pipe, they found Kathy lay below, not above, the cut.

Window Out.
"We cut a window 12 inches by 22 inches in the iron shell of the well," said Kelly, who required doctor's care later. "She was in an upright position below us when we pulled the sheet away."

Blichensderfer went to a hospital after the job of freeing the body was finished. Discovery and determination of death were made some two hours before the announcement was made public. Engineer Raymond A. Hill, supervising operations, clamped on the secrecy. Later it was explained this was "to ease the blow for the parents."

To the crowd pressed 30 deep against fences and police ropes bordering the field came finally an announcement over the public address system. In level tones, Dr. Paul Hanson, friend of the family, said:

"Kathy is dead and has apparently been dead since she was last heard speaking on Friday."

Crowd Breaks Up.
The parents had received the news at home. And soon the crowd, numbering hundreds of other parents, began breaking up silently.

Thus culminated the most concerted rescue attempt of an individual since Floyd Collins was fatally trapped in a Kentucky cave in 1925. That lasted days, this—hours that seemed like days.

It started after Kathy, running a footrace with her elder sister, Barbara, nine, and a cousin, Gus Lyon, five, fell behind in the dash across the vacant lot on the corner of her block. When the older children turned around, there was no Kathy.

They called and looked, and Gus almost fell into the concealed well-hole himself when he heard a faint scream coming up from below.

Bulldozers, clamshell cranes and Rotary well diggers were summoned. One pit, 30 feet wide, went down more than 75 feet, before it was abandoned. Its slides started to slide just after Kathy had cut a window at 57 feet and said he saw the girl's arm and dress.

Smaller Shaft.
When it was abandoned, a smaller 30-inch shaft was drilled down beyond 100 feet and a 24-inch casing was sunk. That was the reason the high school grounds after the parade.

It took heroic measures and steadfast battling against huge rocks and then water. Men who had never heard of the Pecos family before risked their lives without a second thought.

Early today the final chapter was written. Bulldozers were working full tilt filling up the rescue pits.

And so there would be no repetitions for other Kathys and their moms and dads—

A giant bulldozer dug in and bent the top of the old well casing over double and sealed it tight.

Child Hit by Car.
Ambulances and police squad cars answered a call in the 800 block of South Main street about 10 o'clock Saturday morning after a small child was reportedly struck by a car.

Investigation revealed that the youngster, whose name was not immediately available, was not seriously hurt and was not taken to a hospital for treatment.

COUNTY COURT

attractive position unless pay boosts are authorized, Mrs. Cook told the court, adding that the county would then be without an agent.

"We women don't like it," Mrs. Cook declared, and she reported that 475 girls in the county were active in 4-H work, as are 465 women in home demonstration work. Judge Joe D. Huffstutler explained to Mrs. Cook that preparation of the county budget is slated this summer. Commissioner Fred Copeland stated that "We're trying to hold down our taxes—if you raise them the people howl."

Mrs. Cook listed three reasons why it is difficult to secure demonstration agents. They were:
1. It's a hard job.
2. High expense, including car operation.
3. Higher salaries in other similar fields and positions.

The demonstration agents here also get $1700 yearly apiece from the state, Mrs. Cook explained after questioning by commissioners. No action was taken by the court.

The commissioners, in a two-hour session, attended to several matters. Two petitions for roads were presented—one calling for a 4-mile stretch from near Eureka to Winkler and one five-mile stretch out from Kerens through Little Elm Flat. They were accepted for filing by the court.

The court voted upon Commissioner Joe George's motion, to pay for a pre-1944 Number 12 Caterpillar tractor a net cost of $5,500 and to borrow half that sum, to be repaid May 15, 1950.

The court also:
Authorized employment of Mrs. Madra E. Gray as an extra deputy in the assessor-collector's office at a $100 monthly salary.
Authorized the county judge to cancel several "double renditions" and erroneously classified delinquent land.
Accepted reports from the county agents.
Approved the monthly bills as submitted by Auditor E. Y. Cunningham.

Tomorrow Will Be Your Last Opportunity To Demonstrate----

YOUR INTEREST in giving relief to the sick and suffering humanity.

YOUR PATRIOTISM in co-operating to build a substantial and permanent monument to the heroes of the last two wars.

YOUR BETTER JUDGMENT in securing a modern, well equipped and fire-proof Memorial Hospital of 100 beds for a very small hospital tax on only $550,000.00 of the $1,200,000.00 project.

YOUR BUSINESS JUDGMENT alone should urge you to vote for the Hospital as you will be getting it for less than half the cost.

YOUR CIVIC PRIDE for your County will be challenged if you do not vote for the hospital.

YOUR LACK OF APPRECIATION for the opportunity given to vote for the Hospital will be in evidence if you do not vote for it.

YOUR LACK OF APPRECIATION for the great efforts put forth by the committees in charge of presenting this opportunity to you to vote upon will stand out against you.

You Will Regret It The Balance Of Your Life

If you do not vote for the much needed Memorial Hospital -- Your negative vote will be an ever reminder of your turning down this wonderful opportunity. Every time you pass the new hospital you will say to yourself -- I am ashamed of myself for not helping make the project possible for myself and family, friends, neighbors and suffering humanity.

Our Hats Are Off To The Hospital Committees

For the fine job they have done in preparing and presenting this Hospital opportunity to the people to vote upon.

They have worked hard, faithful and untiring in their efforts to present to the County such a wonderful opportunity that will not be presented again during our lifetime.

The committees have put all of the cards on the table for every voter to see -- there were no turned down cards.

They have presented in cold type and repeated conferences and rally meetings over the County every detail of the plans for getting the Hospital. They have given the public facts, figures and reasons for the need of this project. They have given of their own funds, energy and time in efforts to secure the hospital.

Surely we all appreciate their efforts and in addition to voting for the hospital we will at the same time express our gratitude and appreciation for all these committees have done to present this great opportunity for the County to vote on.

YOUR UNSELFISH SPORTSMANSHIP, PATRIOTISM AND BETTER BUSINESS JUDGMENT WILL BE CHALLENGED IF YOU DO NOT VOTE FOR THE HOSPITAL TOMORROW.

When the whisper from your conscience is heard it goes without saying—you will be glad to vote the right way and that is FOR THE NAVARRO COUNTY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

HOPE FOR RUSSIA

With the keen insight which has characterized his public life, Winston Churchill in his speech at Boston placed his finger on one of the critical points where the Western position, in the battle of ideas with Russia, is in danger of breaking down. That point is the attitude, the real, personal attitude, of the Western peoples and their governments toward Russia and the Russian people.

The Russian propagandists say that we are hostile toward them, that the European Recovery Program and the Atlantic Pact are directed against Russia, and that we seek to destroy Russia. We say that we only want peace and security for ourselves and for the smaller nations which are subject to the whims of the great powers. But for some time we have been ranting against Russia, in our press and on the radio and in a way which would probably give an unprejudiced observer the idea that we would try to destroy Russia today if we dared. Is that our real sentiment? Said Mr. Churchill:

"We have no hostility to the Russian people and no desire to deny them their legitimate rights and security. I hoped that Russia, after the war, would have access, through unfrozen waters, into every ocean, guaranteed by the world organization of which she would be a leading member; that she should have the freest access, which indeed she has at the present time, to raw materials of every kind; and that the Russians everywhere would be received as brothers in the human family. That still remains our aim and ideal."

Is Mr. Churchill's statement accurate? If so, we should say it more often, and act as though we believed it. It is an essential point in the righteousness of our position.

A handful of Russians in power over Russia make it hard for us to hold this position firmly and openly. But if we maintain our strength, we need, as Churchill tells us, "Fear God and nothing else!"

THE CUSTOMER'S DAY

The customer's day must really be returning when automobile manufacturers begin to play tag among themselves in cutting prices. It has been only a few months since they were tagging each other with price increases. In the broad general fields of things most people want to buy, the automobile industry has been the last to catch up with the market.

In connection with the general movement toward price reduction, the question is being asked more and more frequently: Does this mean a recession is beginning? It does not necessarily mean any such thing, and if the price cutting has been started at the proper point in the business cycle, it may be a strong influence to prevent a recession. Price cutting is an ancient and effective means of stimulating buying.

Competition is returning to the business of making and selling goods. This will mean prices, display and services aimed at attracting the eye of the buyer. It is reasonable to believe that many a customer, grumbling and unhappy since the war, will return to the market place to enjoy the new atmosphere.

Is it patriotic pride, or personal egotism, that starts wars? Or maybe a mixture of the two?

THE PRICE.

From the rigors of winter a lot of us flee
To climates where much gentler the breers will be;
Where his mate from a tree top
The mocking bird calls:
Where the sun lights the sands
where no snow ever falls, But all charms have a price for the pleasure they bring,
And where winter's unknown they may never have spring.

Where the trees never sleep and the streams never rest,
Where seldom the skies in gray
mantles are dressed,
Where the flowers never fade
neath a withering frost:
The joy of the change of the seasons is lost.

Where never comes winter to bluster and sting,
They have never the joy of the coming of spring.
Though winter is heartless and cruel and cold,
There is this in it, favor and praise to be told:
When its harsh rule is ended, behind it is seen
The glory of growing things once again green,
The fruit trees in blossom, the birds in the wing,
For winter's the price that we pay for the spring.

WARNING

Lest anyone conclude that the stiffening of defense lines in Western Europe, as a result of the negotiation of the Atlantic pact, may mean the relaxing of such lines in the Middle East, the State Department is sending out warnings that such is not the case.

At a recent press conference
Secretary of State Dean Acheson stated that the United States is still backing up Turkey, Greece and Iran. He indicated that an attack on any of these countries would be regarded as gravely as would an attack on a country bound by the Atlantic Pact. This statement is being broadcast by the Voice of America, as is also Secretary Acheson's denial that we are preparing to attack Russia with Iran as a vantage point. The secretary of state informs the world that the United States abhors war, and has no plans toward making war on anyone.

It is quite apparent that our foreign policy, so often considered vacillating, is following a line of physical strength as far as Russia is concerned. Present world conditions are similar in some ways to those which existed shortly before World War II. We are beginning to face these conditions with strength and resolution.
These qualities, with wisdom added, need to be carried more deeply into our foreign policy.

VOICE OF SAFETY

Many persons have had the eerie experience of being shouted at through the medium of an unsuspected loudspeaker when crossing the street against a red light, or smoking in a fire control area, or caught in some other breach of safety rules. Loudspeaker systems have been used with telling effects in special campaigns for traffic or industrial safety, enabling an unseen
watcher to observe violations and shout corrections in a voice loud enough to be heard by all and sundry, to the discomfort as well as instruction of the culprit.

Now this loudspeaking gadget, like so many others of the modern age, is to be automatic. A machine has been perfected by means of which a voice can be recorded for some appropriate message, such as "Get back to the curb and wait for the green light." The machine can then be set to spin this message out whenever an unwary pedestrian steps off the curb while the light is against him. A beam of light and an electric eye provide the seeming magic control.

The gadget can also detect a lighted cigarette brought into a no-smoking area, or warn a worker who has started a machine without safety devices, or perform other similar chores.

The machine age is not only taking charge of our lives; it is even beginning to tell us when we may or may not risk them.

"Only faith can save the world," says a church editor, but another editor quotes "faith without works is vain." What are we going to do about it?

Jerry Caton Held Waco Bengals To Scattered Blows

WACO, April 9.—Jerry Caton of Corsicana handuffed the Waco Tigers 7-2 Friday afternoon at Kivania Field for 7-2 victory in their District 8-A conference attraction.

With this win, the Navarro County Bengals were elevated to the favorite's seat in the district race with two wins the first week. Waco was the pre-game favorite and also the choice for the district pennant before the campaign opened this week.

The Corsicans crew combined timely swats with Waco errors to forge ahead early in the contest Friday afternoon.

Handcuffs Waco

Caton hurled a perfect game for the first four innings and did not allow a Wacoan to reach first base.

Robert Knowles, slugging Waco left fielder, cracked a fast one over the left field fence for a home run to gain Waco's first tally, but the Corsicana crew was seven runs to the good and were never endangered. The other hits were a double and two singles.

Six Waco errors were recorded during the afternoon and several figured prominently in the scoring.

Unearned Runs

Corsicana clinched the game in the top half of the third inning when three unearned runs were chalked up. Dave Smith, catcher and Harvey Helms, the next batter, was safe on an error with Gange going home from second on the miscue. Frank Warfield singled to left and Knowles let it trickle through his arms to the fence and Helms scored. Gerald Owens sacrificed Warfield home.

Jack Bowden tripled in the fourth for Corsicana after two men had been retired and scored when a Waco infielder let Caton's grounder get away from him.

Three more scores came in the fifth. Owens and Rayburn Matthews walked and Berry was safe on an error, with Owens scoring. Bowden singled and Matthews and Berry scored on a grounder to the first-sacker by Bowden.

Frost Wins TIL County Net Meet
Friday Afternoon

Frost netters annexed the county interscholastic League tennis meet for 1948 Friday, concluding a week of outstanding performances by its contestants in the senior division.

Frost amassed a total of 38 points in the junior and senior boys' and girls' divisions; Blooming Grove got second with 28; State Home third with 21 and Richmond fourth with 5.

State Home, which made a promising beginning Thursday in the junior division, lost out when a senior boy failed to place Friday.

Mrs. Charles Thompson of Blooming Grove directed the tennis league competition this year, and was in charge of the meet held at the city park courts.

Completion of the tennis matches leaves but one sport remaining on the spring roster of the interscholastic League in Navarro county. That is softball, which will be held at the State Home here on May 13 and 14, under direction of A. G. Sebastian of Midred.

Friday's winners: Senior Girls—Doubles—Shirley Brown and Gwynn Hooser; Frost; first; Flora Alice Anders and Bobbie Rogers, State Home, second; Alice May Wigley and Wanda Nell Adams, Richmond, third.

Senior Boys—Doubles—Adelroy Warfield and Blooming Grove, first; Lora Ann Scott, Frost, second; Bobbie Campbell, State Home, third.

Senior Boys' Doubles—Allen McCormick and Ted Spencer, Blooming Grove, first; Bobby Templeton and Charles Adams, Frost, second; Johnny Wigley and Sylvanus Herod, Richmond, third.

Senior Boys' Singles—Thomas Allen, Richmond, first; Billy Bonland, second; William Lynch, Blooming Grove, third.

OUTSTANDING AGRICULTURAL WORKER—County Agent W. H. Walker

Walker (above) was honored as the county's most outstanding agricultural worker during 1948 at a dinner-meeting Thursday night of the Navarro County Agricultural Workers Association. Walker came here in November, 1947 from Crockett, Texas, where he was the Houston county agricultural agent.

County Agent W. H. Walker Honored By Agricultural Workers Organization

County Agent W. H. Walker received the honor from the Navarro County Agricultural Workers Association at a dinner-meeting in the Navarro Hotel Thursday night.

Walker was named the county's most outstanding agricultural worker for 1948. The selection was made by a committee of three "unknowns" headed by W. H. Butler, who presented the award.

Walker came to Corsicana in November, 1947 from Crockett, where he was Houston county agricultural agent.

Principal speaker at the monthly meeting was Lewis David, who revealed that cotton acreage alloments are possible for the nation and that a big cut in cotton production is being made in Navarro county in 1950.

The speaker declared that officials within the next two weeks would begin contacting all farmers for information relative to their cotton acreage. And in November, a referendum will be held to determine whether the farmers want the allotments, he said.

David, an agricultural agent member of an agriculture department committee, told the Navarro County Agricultural Workers Association at a dinner meeting in the Navarro Hotel that there may be a big cut in cotton production in 1950.

He said production problems must be met or farmers will find once again five cent cotton and 25-cent corn. He listed three things for the agricultural workers to consider:

1. Navarro county is basically an agricultural community.

2. A high level of income must be maintained.

3. The law of supply and demand never has worked as far as agriculture is concerned.

"Never again can we go back to the prewar prices of agriculture," he declared.

"If people say just turn things loose, but if we do we're headed for trouble. When prices go up, agricultural production goes up; when prices come down, agricultural production doesn't—it just levels off."

Pointing to the importance of agriculture in this community, David declared that in 1948 the farming income was about $15,000,000, while the income from manufacturing was about $5,000,000.

"This community prospers in proportion to the prospering of agriculture," he said.

David said the national U. S. income in 1948 was $245,000,000,000, and he said this figure should not drop below $200,000,000,000. "If the income dropped back to $100,000,000,000," he said, "that out of every $4 earned would go to the government in taxes."

David said production had increased 30 per cent since 1939 "and the only way we're getting rid of it now is giving it away" (to foreign countries).

Walker was program chairman and introduced the speaker. Ole Caudle, association president, presided.

In presenting the agricultural award to Walker, Butler termed the county agent "a man who thoroughly enjoys working with people."

The association discussed briefly plans for a square dance at the May meeting. Jack Everhart was named chairman of the program committee.

Bulldogs Annex Conference Win
Vs Clifton Crew

By TALMADGE CANANT
Sun Sports Staff

Coming from behind an early deficit, the Navarro Bulldogs registered their second conference baseball win in as many starts Friday night at Territo Park, beating the Clifton Cowboys.

Clifton tried for four innings to stem the tide, but Navarro had too much strength to be denied. The visitors took a one-run lead in the first frame and clung to it desperately until the fifth, when the roof fell in on them and Navarro took a commanding lead that it never relinquished.

Bill Read started for Navarro, and pitched six innings of no-hit baseball before he was replaced by George Hodges in the seventh in order to give the little portlander some rest for the next week-end conference game. Hodges finished the game by giving up three safe blows.

After Clifton scored its initial run of the game, Navarro tied it up in the third on singles by Frost and Gaines, and a Clifton error.

The fifth frame was a jumble of hits, fouls, Clifton protests over close decisions involving its base-runners, and Cowboy errors. Navarro racked up six runs before Clifton turned the tide.

Clifton managed to score one run in the sixth, seventh and eighth frames, but that was the best the visitors could do in the way of a comeback.

Navarro plays its next game on Monday night, April 11, when it goes to Kilgore Junior College for a non-conference game to fill the gap left by Lon Morris Junior College's withdrawal from the zone baseball race.

Good Posture Pays Dividends

By W. P. BROWN
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Everyone needs to be reminded now and then about good posture. It is so easy to slip into careless habits of sitting, standing and walking. In walking especially one ought to give careful attention to posture. For walking is a bodily exercise that is most beneficial when muscles and organs are held in their proper positions.

A good carriage is a mark of distinction. It adds a great deal to appearance; gives opportunity for full deep breathing which produces energy and clear thinking.

With conscientious attention you can require good posture habits in a week. Why not start now to look better, feel better, function better with good posture?

This is the 100th of a series of advertisements appearing in this paper each Monday and Tuesday. (Copyright).

Stalin Prize Is Given For Study In Atomic Field

Research went a prize for experimental research in "the sphere of the atomic nucleus."

A similar prize went to Sergel Vernov, of the Moscow State University, for "experimental study of cosmic rays in the upper strata of the atmosphere."

(The dispatch, which is subject to censorship, gave no details of the atomic and cosmic ray research. A London dispatch, however, said Alexander Nemesy, a member of the Soviet Academy of Science and chairman of the Stalin prize committee, told the Soviet news agency Tass that atomic research was among "the most important investigations carried out last year in physico-mathematical science.")

Decontrol Of Rent Favored By Board For This Territory

By expression of individual opinion the members of the Rent Advisory Board for Navarro and Ellis Counties indicated Thursday afternoon that they are ready and willing to recommend decontrol of areas within the two counties, if such recommendations are sought.

Called together for the first time since rent control was extended by Congress, the board, headed by Joe Sheppard, of Kerens, indicated that they had enough of frozen prices on rental units.

The law gives the board no power to decontrol, but it does give it power to recommend that ceilings be returned if landlords send rents skyrocketing after an area is removed from governmental supervision.

Corsicana, Waxahachie, Ennis and other incorporated towns in the two-county area are all in the same boat—a movement for rent control stoppage must originate with the people, said the board, by their respective city commissions and must get the approval of the governor.

It was apparent that city commissions were in for a siege of headaches, the board members doubt but what all would be asked to take immediate action.

Sheppard expressed himself as against continued controls by the government, and asked each member of the board to express his opinion. They follow:

William T. Allen of Waxahachie, rural mail carrier and landlord, and expressed himself as an opponent of rent control. "I think it is a waste of time and money," he said. "I don't think there will be any rent control left anywhere, except in a few months."

Tom D. Watson of Midlothian, cotton man, producer and buyer, said he was in favor of rent control. "That is the only way to get rents to adjust themselves," he said.

At one point during the discussion county citizens voted $1,000,000 to match $500,000 federal grant for a hospital being erected in Tyler. Anderson county is constructing a large hospital at Palestine, while a hospital is being built in Denton—none with public subscriptions as is offered here—brought out the fact that voting bonds for two-thirds of the cost instead of slightly over 40 percent as is requested here.

The letter to Dr. Sanders from Representative Nokes is as follows:

"Every prosperous, progressive community, in attaining the status of a 'good community' in which to live is influenced by a variety of factors, among them the type of industry, agriculture, or other profitable fields of human endeavor, or from which the town may draw the wherewithal to grow and become prosperous. No economic factor can be as important, however, as a well-educated, healthy population.

"The drive for a modern County Memorial Hospital is of interest to all citizens of the county. It is a project that should not be thought of merely as a worthy cause but rather as an investment in our future. It is better by far that we make this dream a reality than to wait until possibly some epidemic strikes when our facilities might be inadequate for such a catastrophe.

"I heartily endorse this drive and believe that the building of a new and adequate hospital would be an accomplishment which would not only bring great satisfaction to our citizens but would be proof of the public spirit of our people. In giving to this worthy cause we would be helping not only the present generation but the coming generation."

J. I. Elliott, secretary of Corsicana Lodge No. 63, IOOF, writes: "In reply to your letter relative to our lodge endorsing the bond issue in order to build a new hospital for Navarro county, I am pleased to advise you as follows:

"Our lodge voted unanimously to endorse the campaign, as we believe it is the greatest and most worthy need of the county today."

The negro broke the Sabbath, broke the peace and might have broken some bones of his wife but for arrival of police patrolmen. Arrested Sunday night after a disturbance at 815 South Fifth St., the Negro was booked for whipping his wife, was charged $25 for same by City Recorder Clay N. Lewis.

Also jailed over the weekend were four persons on drunkenness charges. One speeder was nabbed. Two minor wrecks were investigated by the department. Cars being driven by Jack and Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. Ruby Livingston were elected to attend the district conference in Palestine on April 19.

Mrs. Erwin Bohmalk of Corsicana presented the main speech, "Home." The hospital committee, Mrs. Louise Johnston, Mrs. Lillian McGraw and Mrs. Louise Barnes, served refreshments to 18 members and 8 visitors.

Pleas For Hospital Bond Issue Voiced At Dawson Meeting

Several speakers appeared on the southwest Navarro county hospital bond campaign rally at the Dawson school gymnasium at Dawson Friday evening. Following the program, an open forum was held with various questions asked and answered relative to the campaign that closes with an election, Tuesday, April 12.

The campaign is to determine whether or not Navarro county erects a $1,200,000 memorial hospital. The county is asked to vote $500,000 bonds to match $400,000 federal grant and $300,000 public subscription raised recently in a whirlwind campaign.

The Friday evening rally was the first held in the western section of the county and another meeting was held at Blooming Grove Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the proposal was discussed by Messrs. Corsicana, secretary of the county hospital board and advisory board.

Speakers at the Dawson rally included Mrs. W. B. Hilliard, Mrs. J. W. McAdams, Festus A. Pierce, J. W. McAdams, and Dr. Gurley H. Sanders, chairman of the county hospital board and advisory board.

Bryant Merrell, superintendent of the Dawson public schools, opened the meeting and welcomed the visitors.

Various details of the proposal for a 100-bed fully equipped hospital were given by Dr. Gurley H. Sanders, chairman of the county hospital board and advisory board.

Dr. Sanders stated that the hospital would be a memorial to the county's fallen soldiers and sailors, and would be a source of pride and honor to the community.

Dr. Sanders also stated that the hospital would be a source of employment for many people in the community, and would be a source of pride and honor to the community.

Allied Occupation Statute Fails To Please Germans

BONN, Germany, April 11.—(AP)—The western allies have given Germany a treaty returning a measure of self-government to that defeated country. But the Germans say it doesn't give them enough freedom to run their own affairs.

The treaty—called an occupation statute—was handed Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of the German parliamentary council, yesterday by representatives of the United States, Great Britain and France.

The parliamentary council is charged with writing a constitution for a German republic composed of the occupied zones of the three western powers. The occupation statute would become effective as soon as this new German government is set up. This may be by July 1.

Adenauer and other political leaders have reacted with little comment on the treaty for 48 hours, but the German press last night in attacking it.

The newspapers object particularly to provisions giving the allies control over the German economy, science and foreign trade relations.

"I do not own my home but do pay taxes and am told I must own my home. Some of the larger tax-payers are circulating this around and as a result many people who favor this bond drive, if this matter is not cleared up, I would like to see it on the front pages of all the county papers."

County Judge Joe D. Huffstutler and other officials have ruled that any person qualified to vote and with any property of any character on the tax rolls is entitled to vote and election judges are so advised.

Originally the answer to the Red demand for virtual surrender of government troops was due tomorrow.

Assurances have been given, Chinese sources said, that the Reds will not cross the Yangtze river before Friday.

Government leaders pondered their answer during the day. No decision was announced here. Residents who were able deserted the capital.

The sound of artillery fire was audible in Nanking last night. Red troops attacked a Nationalist bridgehead on the north side of the Yangtze six miles from the city.

The capital was jittery. The whole Yangtze front extending from the sea inland 650 miles looked for the Communist smash southward. Scattered engagements were reported along the far-flung front.

The Communists have announced the operation is a softening up process for the river crossing into South China. Military observers still found no indication of how soon the major assault would take place.

MRS. EDWIN DANIELS

BRIN-DANIELS WEDDING HELD AT DALLAS COLUMBIAN CLUB; COUPLE TO MAKE HOME HERE

The marriage of Miss Lyra Brin and Edwin Daniels took place at 1 o'clock, Sunday afternoon at the Columbia Club in Dallas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Brin of Dallas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Daniels of Corsicana.

Rabbi Levi A. Olan performed the ceremony, and Dr. David Leikowitz gave the blessing. In the wedding party were Miss Louise Goldman as maid of honor and Mrs. Harvey D. Kirstein as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Badt, Artyce Aronson, Joan Klein and Sydney Hohenberg, and in the house party at the reception were Misses Betty Bloom, Audrey Daniels, and Ann Kamen. Best man for Mr. Daniels was Maurice Rohmowitz, and groomsmen were Bill Coleman, Dick Rosenthal, Gene Gail, Harold Daniels, Daniel Levy, Bob Levy and Marvin Shwarts.

Miss Brin, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with a yoke of sheer illusion and deep, shirred band of tulle at the shoulders. She wore fitted sleeves, a tight basque bodice, and full gathered skirt, accented with bands of the shirred fabric, which swept into a formal tulle train. Her fingertip length veil of imported French bridal illusion fell in full graceful tiers from a ruffled halo of the illusion sprinkled with lilies of the valley. She carried a cascading bouquet of baby calla lilies and lilies of the valley, showered with matched white orchids that fell to the hemline.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of pale pink tulle with draped neckline, shirred bodice, and very full fingertip length veil of imported French bridal illusion. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The couple left later in the afternoon on a two week trip to New Orleans, Miami and Havana. For traveling, the bride wore a black faille suit with a green print bodice and a bolero jacket with lining matching the blouse. Her accessories were of black patent, and her corsage was white orchids. When they return they will make their home in Corsicana.

The bride was a pledge of Alpha Epsilon Phi at the University of Texas. Mr. Daniels graduated from Texas A. and M. and then attended the University where he was a member of Phi Sigma Delta.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN WALES INQUIRE ABOUT CORSICANA IN LETTER TO PUPILS HERE

Is Corsicana similar to the community depicted in the radio show, Riders of the Range? English children would like to know.

That is one of the questions asked in letters written in beautiful and picturesque script by nine year old pupils in the Mixed School, Griffithstown, Ponnypool, Monmouthshire, South Wales. They were addressed the children of the sixth grade of Robert E. Leach school, taught by Miss Helen O'Daniel.

The two groups are exchanging letters, and the local class recently sent a package of foodstuffs, principally sweets, to the English school.

The most unusual feature of the letters is the handwriting which is very correct and precise, as compared with the generous movements of the Palmer method practiced by American school children.

Griffithstown, the letters reveal, is a small town on the border of South Wales. Because the land is hilly, the school is situated on an incline. In the school there are 152 boys and 136 girls.

Country dancing, which evidently compares with American folk dancing, seems to be the favorite school activity.

Within the district are steelworks, a rail depot, glass and nylon factories. The children also describe in the immediate neighborhood of the school, a "bread and bake" factory, a shop operated by a "hoser and draper." In the background, their letters tell, are mountain ranges where sheep are grazed.

Of the gifts included in the box, the children by and large preferred the bubble gum, although they liked the "biscuits" or cookies, too. The children shared equally in the gifts.

They commented on a map included in the box, and a Bluebonnet postcard.

The English children reported that the arrival of the American box caused a "lot of excitement." The gifts and letters from Corsicana were an outgrowth of a visit here of Miss Nancy Whitcombe, exchange teacher from England, now in Cleburne.

One point of great similarity appeared. English children are looking forward to Easter holidays, too.

Must Register Certain Rental Units Before April 30, Area Director Warns

C. J. Lockhart, area rent director, Friday warned landlords that they must register certain rental units before April 30.

"Rent control applies now to all rental housing units which were previously decontrolled because they were not rented for any successive 24-month period between Feb. 1, 1945 and March 30, 1948," Lockhart said.

He said that previously registered units need not be re-registered, but owners are advised to show the registration statements to the present tenant. The landlord cannot charge more than the maximum rent shown in the registration statement, plus or minus approved adjustments, Lockhart said.

Landlords may obtain assistance in preparing registration statements at the rent office in the May building. The forms will be mailed on written request or by telephone call to 2470, the director advised.

"Also recontrolled are all accommodations which were decontrolled because a 1941 voluntary rent increase lease was terminated prior to April 1, 1948," Lockhart said.

"These are now recontrolled at their old lease rent and the landlord must file a report of termination statement with the area rent office by April 15, unless he has previously filed such a report. Accommodations covered by leases which expired or terminated on or after April 1, 1948 have been and still are subject to rent control."

Lockhart also announced that trailers and trailer spaces which on April 1, 1949 were not used exclusively for transient occupancy are again subject to rent control.

Information on trailer rent control also may be obtained at the rent control office.

Hi-Y Youths Here For Meeting Have Marriage Forum

Dean From SMU Is Moderator For Talk Conducted By Panel

By TALMADGE CANANT
Dallas Staff Writer

Ten fresh-faced, teen-age youngsters, composing a discussion panel on "Preparing for Courtship and Marriage" were the high point of the second morning of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y conference of the Northeast Texas district here.

Willis Tate, dean of student life at SMU in Dallas, acted as the moderator.

The panel, held on the stage of the junior high auditorium here, was conducted in informal, easy style that pleased not only the high school delegates, but those grown-ups who sat in the audience.

"We're going to conduct this like a bull session," Tate began, "since a great deal of your own bull sessions are on this subject—aren't they?" A roar of laughter acknowledged it.

Tate prefaced the discussion with the admonition that "the experts" tell us that unless a nation can save its family structure, that nation is doomed. The high American rate is taken by some authorities as proof of an alarming condition.

The discussion among the youngsters ranged from the financial aspects of marriage to the dangers of getting.

Most of the youngsters showed sound opinions on the part that money relations play in marital harmony. The solutions to that problems ranged from "having enough in the first place," to "trying not to think too much about the money angle."

Another current problem that received attention of the delegates was the question of whether both boys and girls should be married. This was divided on this question, both sides bringing out good points.

In discussing the dangers of petting, one boy pointed out that it cramps the personality of one of the parties. It brought out the fact that the personality and reputation of the girl suffers as a result of it.

Asked by Tate if she thought there was a different standard of conduct for boys and girls in this respect, the girls replied, "There is but there shouldn't be."

Other subjects that came up for brief discussion were what can be done to prepare for marriage, the best length for engagements, whether high school youngsters should go "steady," and the danger of possessiveness.

Tate summed up the session with the statement that "you have, as high school boys and girls, the right to influence the future of the nation. You either for or against it, depends on you."

More small-group discussion panels filled out the remainder of the morning session Saturday.

Dallas Man Speaker.

John Platt Green of Dallas gave the opening address of the conference Friday afternoon, urging the delegates to take part in the political affairs of their respective communities.

"It is a challenge to you to participate in community government and politics—a challenge I hope you will accept. It was a challenge in the past, but the young men of this time failed to accept it, and we had a second world conflict," he asserted.

There are three political groups, Green said. There are those who are actively interested in politics; those who are interested, but in the wrong way, and those who are not interested at all. America has not enough of the first group, and too many of the second and third.

Indicts Politics.

Green, a Dallas attorney, with a talent for holding juvenile attention, indicted politics with the statement that "we must raise the level of our politics if we would attract the kind of persons we want as candidates for public office."

"If you are the leader of a group, you have a responsibility to lead in a way that will benefit the group. The leaders among you are today are those who are here because they think they might get something out of this that might help them in post-high school years," Green concluded.

W. E. McKinney of Corsicana, general chairman of the committee on arrangements, welcomed the delegates to Corsicana.

Rev. Herbert G. Dudley, pastor of the First Christian church here, gave the devotional and invocation, and the Winlaw of Gorsilla, conducted by very successful singing in the early part of the morning session.

Discussion Groups.

After Green's opening speech the conference was organized into "cracker barrel" discussion groups by Bob Bryan of Dallas, and these groups met in the various rooms of the junior high school for their first sessions.

Friday night's sessions, convened 7 o'clock with another singing, The Tyler delegation gave the evening devotional "Hilltop Experience," and two films, "You and Your Family," and "One Day Nearer Democracy," were shown.

Another cracker barrel discussion followed with adjournment coming at 9:15.

Roy Moore, president of the conference, Fort Worth, presided over the Friday meeting.

Special musical entertainment was brought by Tommy Dixon and girls' vocal trio, composed of Dorothy Griffin, Marian Johnson and Helen Griffin.

Fellowship Services.

Overflow crowds were reported at Sunday services of the Fellowship Baptist church. Rev. Obie Barton, pastor, brought messages "Walking With God" at the morning hour and "The Security of the Believer" Sunday evening.

There were 141 in Sunday School and 140 in BFCO.

The young people's choir had charge of the song service.

SICK AND CONVALESCENT.

F. and S. Hospital.

Mrs. Ralph Putman underwent an appendectomy.

Mrs. L. R. Turner, Richland, underwent a hysterectomy.

W. West, Houston, is a medical patient.

Tim Grantham was admitted.

MRS. JOSHUA THOMAS TROTMAN

MURDOCK-TROTMAN WEDDING SUNDAY AT KINSLOE HOUSE; DOUBLE RING RITES HELD

The marriage of Miss Naomi Jean Murdock, daughter of B. F. Murdock of Rusk, to Joshua Thomas Trotman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trotman of Trinity, was solemnized in the Kato Whitesell Auditorium at Kinsloe House Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. J. Morris Bailey reading the impressive double ring rites.

Silhouetted against a background of palms, a trio of white urns, filled with white gladioli, stock and calla lilies, fashioned an effective altar decor, and tall white tapers in floor candelabra cast a candlelight glow over the setting.

B. H. Murdock of Nacogdoches and Ezell Murdock of Houston, brothers of the bride, sang a duet arrangement of "Through the Years," and Ezell Murdock sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte with Miss Mabel Boykin of Grapeland at the piano. Miss Boykin also played the traditional wedding marches as processional and recessional music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, the Rev. Alton Jones of Grapeland, chose a gown of lustrous white slipper satin designed with off-shoulder bertha of Chantilly lace and satin, a deep yoke of illusion, long tapering sleeves of matching lace, and a full, gathered skirt that terminated in a chapel-length train. She wore a headdress of lace and seed pearls from which fell a fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bridal bouquet of shattered white carnations, and lilies-of-the-valley, centered with matched white orchids and tied with diminutive white satin ribbons.

Attendants.

Miss Winona Stewart, maid of honor, was gowned in yellow tulle and marquisette, styled in off-shoulder effect with yoke of marquisette, a fitted bodice, and a bouffant skirt. She wore muffs of yellow marquisette and carried a Colonial bouquet of sweet peas and shattered carnations, showered with pastel ribbons. A halo of ruffled marquisette adorned her collar.

Mrs. Alton Jones, matron of honor, wore aqua tulle and net, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Alvin Murdock and Miss Wanda Trotman, chose gowns of pink tulle and net, designed identically with that of the maid of honor. They wore halos of ruffled net and carried Colonial bouquets of shattered carnations and sweet peas in harmonizing shades, tied with pastel ribbons. Mrs. Alton Jones carried a flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of orchid tulle and net and carried a basket of rose petals.

Dan Melear of A. and M., attended the bridegroom as best man, and the groomsmen were Harry Otell of College Station, Alvin E. Murdock of West, and B. H. Murdock of Nacogdoches. Candlelight tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Doris Noland of Port Arthur presided at the white satin-laced, three-tiered cake, which was topped with miniature bride and groom. Miss LeVoyce Farish served punch, and Miss Helen Jane Murdock had charge of the bride's book.
